This reserve list may be used for recruiting candidates on other similar positions carrying the same profile as the one described in this notice.

The validity of the reserve list could be extended if the Appointing Authority so decides.

All the detailed information concerning the selection process may be found in the “Guide for applicants” published on the F4E website along with this Vacancy Notice.

1. RESPONSIBILITIES

As a member of the In-Vessel Project Team within the ITER Department of ‘Fusion for Energy’, the Technical Project Officer will be responsible for the definition and follow-up of design, Research & Development (R&D) and procurement activities for the European contribution to the procurement of the divertor system for ITER. The divertor is a key system of the ITER Tokamak, comprising precision-machined, water-cooled metallic structures deploying state-of-the-art manufacturing and bonding technologies.

The successful candidate will, among other tasks:

- Support the In-Vessel Project Team manager and the divertor Coordinator for the procurement activities of the divertor components such as the Inner Vertical Target and Cassette Assemblies, including the preparation of the project plan, work programmes and monthly monitoring reporting;

¹ Given the needs of the organisation, the candidate may be offered a position at any of the other F4E working places: Garching (Germany) or Cadarache (France).

- Prepare and review call for tender documentation including in particular technical specifications and quality assurance documentation, to ensure it incorporates all necessary technical and contractual information to maximise the quality and minimise the price of tenders;
- Participate in evaluation committees of calls for tenders and, as appropriate, in negotiations with industry prior to contract award;
- Define and coordinate design and R&D activities to be carried out in support, when needed, of the European contribution to the procurement of divertor components;
- Follow-up the progress of contracts for the divertor system by tracking the activities against the plan, analyse and evaluate the results, provide regular and accurate reports.
- Monitor the implementation of the quality assurance and quality control requirements to be met in accordance with the arrangements established with the ITER Organisation
